

Brussels, 29 May 2018

PRESS RELEASE

The European Newspaper Publishers' Association re-elects Italian publisher Carlo Perrone as President and Valdo Lehari jr. (Germany) and Bruno Pachent (France) as Vice-Presidents

Brussels, 29 May 2018 – ENPA, representing publishers of newspapers and news media in Europe, announced today the re-election of Carlo Perrone as President, along with Bruno Pachent and Valdo Lehari jr. as Vice-Presidents. They have been re-elected during ENPA's General Assembly which took place in Brussels today.

ENPA President Carlo Perrone said: "It is a great honour for me today to be re-elected as President of ENPA, which, since its creation in 1961, defends and advocates strongly for press freedom, editorial independence and to ensure that all citizens across Europe participate to the democratic debate. These values must remain at the heart of the European and national priorities, especially at a time where Europe is facing many challenges, whether economic, social or political."

Carlo Perrone has been the President of ENPA since 2016. He is Board member of GEDI Gruppo Editoriale S.p.A and a member of the Chairman's Committee of the Italian Federation of Newspaper Publishers (FIEG).

Bruno Pachent has been the Vice-President of ENPA since 2016. He is Executive Director of Média Sud Europe

Valdo Lehari jr. has been the Vice-President of ENPA since 2014. He is CEO and Publisher of Reutlinger General-Anzeiger Verlag in Germany.

About ENPA:

ENPA, the European Newspaper Publishers' Association, is an international non-profit organisation representing publishers of newspaper and news media on all platforms. In a rapidly changing media environment, ENPA supports publishers with the aim of achieving a successful and sustainable future for independent news media in Europe. See: www.enpa.eu

For further questions please contact:

joy.deloozc@enpa.eu , +32 2 536 06 08